Regarding the Last Election

Regarding the last election: It would have been very helpful if the people running for certain offices had taken the time to write a letter or create a flyer that would let others know where they stand on the issues, and how they would propose to address some of the problems we have in our small town. I am speaking about Columbia School here in Hunters. It's difficult to make an informed decision without these things.

Something is Happening at Colville Jewelers

Maybe you have seen the ads stating "It's Coming ". Simple and unassuming, they are easy to ignore. Maybe...

Maybe you have been in the main street jeweler and experienced the small town warmth firsthand, promising yourself to go in again the next time that you need or want something jewelry related. After all, it's better to shop local and support small businesses than to get sucked in to the craziness and consumerism that Spokane becomes during the holidays. Maybe....

Maybe the promise that it will be "Unbelievable " finally caught your eye and the nagging thought that you really ought to check out just exactly what is coming just wont leave the back of your mind. Maybe...

With your mind finally made up, you park your car, and venture in to see for yourself.

Something is happening, and with your first steps into Colville Jewelers, you can't help but see and feel the difference. Whether it is the warm hello from one of the engagingly friendly sales staff or the visually pleasing and thoughtfully displayed merchandise, it is clear that something IS happening. Closer examination reveals a wide selection of merchandise to fit all budgets clearly marked with prices and discounts that rival the larger operations in the city. Discounts on diamonds, gemstones, gold, and watches vary and are as much as 60% off.

Owner Andy Zayemopoulos sets the stage and brings a lifetime of jewelry experience coupled with the desire to connect his neighbors and friends to unique pieces that deliver the perfect message to the recipient.

So, whether you are trying to say "I love you", "You are special to me", "Will you marry me? ", "Happy Anniversary " or spoiling yourself "just because", the staff at Colville Jewelers can help you find the perfect item for any occasion at a price you can afford.

Something is happening at Colville Jewelers. It's finally here and it is unbelievable.
